DEFENDANT HDP, INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS
FOR PLAINTIFFS' FAILURE TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AS ORDERED BY THE COURT

Defendant HDP, Inc. (“HDP”) hereby moves, pursuant to F. R. C. P. 37 (b)(2) that the Court dismiss the complaint of the plaintiffs, Peter A. Spalluto (“Spalluto”) and Access With Success, Inc. (“Access”), for failure to appear at their respective depositions, despite having been ordered to do so by this Court.

In support of its motion, defendant says that despite the granting of a motion to compel the plaintiffs to appear for their depositions, Mr. Spalluto failed to appear or seek relief from this court. Access With Success, Inc., in a complete charade, appeared through a spokesperson who was completely without knowledge of the information sought in the deposition notice served upon it, and failed utterly to provide any information sought by the defendant. Like Mr. Spalluto, Access with Success, Inc. sought no protective order or other relief from this Court regarding the obligation to appear imposed by this Courts order compelling its deposition.

Defendant further relies on the memorandum of law attached filed herewith and the exhibits attached thereto.

Wherefore, because the plaintiffs refused to comply with the order of this Court compelling their attendance at their respective depositions, the defendant moves that the complaint be dismissed forthwith, and with prejudice and costs.

Respectfully submitted,
HDP, INC.
By its Attorney,
